

Honor the Rev. Dr. King: Speak Out Against the War

Public Witness

Sat., January 15, 10 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Press Conference, 12:00noon

New Haven Green

New Haven, CT

Honor the Dead: Public reading of the names of all U.S. soldiers killed in Iraq and an equal number of Iraqi citizens

Honor the Vision of the Rev. Dr. King: Readings from key anti-war speeches of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King

Honor the Obligation to Speak Out: “A Call to Resist” will be publicly read and signed

This public witness launches a new campaign to end the war in Iraq: organizing, educating, resisting, witnessing.

Location: Corner of College and Chapel streets (Bishop Tutu Corner), the southwest corner of the upper Green. If the weather is inclement, we will gather at United Church on the Green, at the corner of Temple and Elm streets, the northeast corner of the upper Green. (There will be access to bathroom facilities and space for respite from the cold.)

Organized by Reclaiming the Prophetic Voice. Contact persons: John Humphries, 860-236-5175, jhumphries@igc.org or Allie Perry, 203-865-6575, aperry7247@aol.com
